Applicant's amendment and argument filed 12 November 2007 have been carefully considered. In the response applicant argues examiners holding that the amendment filed effectively cancels all of the elected claims. Applicant argues that original claims 21-30 were drawn to a composition comprising a zeolite as well as surfactants, buffers etc. Applicant's arguments are not persuasive. The restriction requirement of 17 November 2006 does describe the claims of group IV, claims 21-30 as "drawn to protein refolding agents comprising zeolite, surfactants, buffer etc." but, does not explicitly construe the metes and bounds of the instant claims, i.e. does not examine the claims for patentability with respect to 35 U.S.C. 112 or any other section. Furthermore, it is unclear how group IV could have differentiated from the claims of 9-20 reciting combinations of zeolite beta, denaturant, regulator, etc. unless group IV was to be construed as directed to zeolite beta per se. The non-final office action of 19 March 2007 does examine the claims with respect to patentability. In the comparison to the prior art and rejection of claim 20-31 over US Re 28341, the examiner authoritatively construes the instant claims as drawn to the zeolite beta per se. Applicant has received a complete office action treating the invention of a refolding agent as specific forms of zeolite beta as that agent.

The holding that claims requiring the presence of compounds in addition to zeolite beta agent is affirmed. All outstanding claims remain directed to inventions not readable on the elected invention.

The one month time period set in the office action of 12 October 2007 continues to run. Extensions of this time period are available under 37 C.F.R. 1.136(a).
